Reputation for excellence

Australia's premier dairy event ADC continues to keep exceeding expectations.

Records continue to be broken year on year – ADC delegates numbers continue to soar, and the trade exhibition has been bursting with impressive large equipment as well as record exhibitor numbers.

Importantly, the reputation of ADC as a pivotal industry event is matched by the willingness of Australian dairy businesses to invest in ADC and be part of the national conversation.

ADC is where ideas are born, theories challenged, new thinking welcomed, and innovative solutions are reached.

Partnerships lie at the heart of the success of ADC, and we are fortunate to have the ongoing and continued support of many long-term sponsors of the event – including Dairy Australia as the ADC Industry Partner.

As ADC continues to evolve - and keep breaking records - we hope you find the value in supporting, investing and being part of the only independent run event for farmers, by farmers.

The ADC Sponsorship Prospectus is refreshed and reviewed each year to find engaging and impacting ways to interact and connect with members of Australia's dairy industry.

We hope you join us to partner and showcase Australian dairy in the best possible light as we embark on ADC 2027 Adelaide.
